FINDING PEACE AND PURPOSE

The program is designed to assist those who are preparing for retirement and also for those who are already retired. The program was developed by Dr. Robert P. Johnson, a clinical psychologist and devout Catholic who anchors the Johnson Institute. Dr. Johnson is nationally recognized for his pioneering work in Maturing Adult Formation and Spiritual Gerontology. The program will address these questions to name a few:

Can retirement be a spiritual experience?
How do I find peace and purpose in my retirement?
What are the factors for successful living in retirement?

There is no cost for participants so please join us for an enlightening and encouraging morning together. Feel free to invite friends. So that we will have enough printed materials for everyone, please call the office at (920) 457-9408 to r.s.v.p. Thank you.
